Fair Compensation for Library Workers

The labor of public library workers is critical to ensuring that every resident of the region has access to lifelong learning opportunities. Library workers deserve to be fairly compensated for their labor.

The Pioneer Library System hereby resolves that all workers at our member libraries should earn at least the New York State minimum wage. Even in circumstances in which the state’s minimum wage laws does not extend to library workers, it is imperative that our member library boards decide locally to compensate workers at a level at least equal to minimum wage.
